LIBRARY REPORT

The year 1921 notes interest in the public library. Several new books have been added by Trustees and gifts of books received from friends and those interested in the library. Mrs. Addie R. White has charge of the branch library at the Flat.

C. E. Murphy has presented a year's number of several different magazines. Copies of the Dearborn Independent and Dumb Animals are received every month as a gift from publishers. I wish to thank all for gifts received.
